

ASSISTANCE FOR THE MULTICULTURAL CLASSROOM

“ANNOTATED LIST OF MULTICULTURAL TEXTS”

Order Tim Westhead’s “Annotated List of Multicultural Texts”. This excellent teachers’ aid contains more than 250 entries of students’ and teachers’ texts and other resources. This material is suitable for high school libraries and high school English courses, and for selected courses in English as a Second Language and the Social Sciences. All texts in this extensive multicultural bibliography are personally recommended, and constitute more than 30% Canadian content. A version is available on CD requiring Microsoft Office Word 2003.

Annotations accompanying entries of the 200+ student texts provide the following:

- author’s/editor’s name, publication details, and ISBN to assist with ordering
- original publication date, genre, and total number of pages
- brief synopses of plot and/or textual content
- notes on story location and/or author’s nationality
- clear identification of Canadian and Native Canadian content

In addition, annotations of applicable student texts incorporate:

- cross referencing notations
- titles and key details of texts’ film versions

The five sections of this multicultural bibliography include:

- texts suggested for use in grade 9 and 10 courses: 60+ titles, annotations, and designations for both academic and applied courses
- texts suggested for use in grade 11 and 12 courses: 65+ titles and annotations
- texts suggested for use in university preparation courses: 75+ titles and annotations; includes more challenging content for students’ independent study projects
- teachers’ guides and other resources: with 50+ entries suggested for use by teacher-librarians and teachers, department heads/curriculum leaders, and course coordinators and curriculum developers at school board level
- publishers, distributors, suppliers, and websites: with company addresses, website and email addresses, and phone and fax numbers to assist with ordering

Intended for: high school libraries and teacher-librarians; teachers of English of grades 9 to 12 and adults; teachers of selected courses in English as a Second Language and the Social Sciences; respective department heads/curriculum leaders; respective course coordinators and curriculum developers at the school board level.

Appropriate for: high school students in grades 9 to 12 and adults, with applications for these types of courses: academic, applied, college, and university preparation.

Cost: $49.95: includes resource on CD w/ case, postage & handling (no tax).
